

Map & Directions

Please note that it will take about 20–30mins to arrive at 'The Quay' after you have turned off the Princess Highway

1. Whether you are coming to visit 'The Quay' from the north or south you will need to make your way to Nowra along the Princess Highway.
2. At Nowra you will need to turn off the Princess Highway and head towards Greenwell Point.

From the North

Turn left at the 5th set of lights after the Shoalhaven Bridge into Kalandar Street. There is a Tavern/Pub opposite you at this intersection and a sign directing you to Greenwell Point.

From the South

Turn right at the 1st set of lights into Kalandar Street. There is a Tavern/Pub to your right and a sign directing you to Green Point.

3. Follow the road for approx 10 mins and turn right at the Old Pyree Hall (a rustic red building to your right). Follow signs to Currarong & Callala.
4. Follow this road for approx 5 mins and turn right at the Nursery into Coonemia Road, (located at the major T-intersection) towards Callala & Currarong.
5. Follow this road until it ends and turn right at the T-intersection. Take the second turning on your left into Callala Beach Road.
6. Follow this road all the way to Callala Beach and after the Callala Beach Country Club take the 3rd turning on your right into Quay Road. Continue all the way to the end of Quay Road and 'The Quay' is the large brick house on your left, third from the end.

